Hi Carrie - I apologize for the inconvenience but I think there needs to be better documentation than just a handwritten note.

Hello Emily,

Attached is an RFO for your review. They are in a bit of a rush.

Apparently they thought they sent this to me for review and approval on May 13th, but I don't have record of ever receiving it. They just asked me about it and we discovered I didn't receive it. This client has been without a working vehicle for some time and they would appreciate a rush on the approval if possible. The estimate from the mechanic is attached, but is just a hand written note. Will this work?

Thanks!

Carrie
